ARCHIVAL NEWSPAPERS: Arab-Israeli Conflict, 1967-1970

This collection contains contemporary newspaper coverage of the 1967 Six-Day War and the subsequent War of Attrition (1967-1970) between Israel and several Arab states. These issues document military developments, diplomatic responses, and international commentary during a period that significantly reshaped the political landscape of the Middle East. As primary sources, the newspapers provide insight into how these events were reported and interpreted at the time, offering valuable context for understanding ongoing regional debates and conflicts.
